

Personal Data Form

1. Your full name and what you would like me to call you. My name is Patrick Ignaut and I am fine with that or Pat.
2. Email address. My email is W211197397@student.hccs.edu
3. What courses are you taking at HCC this semester? I am taking Precalculus, Programming Fundamentals, Learning Framework, Federal Government, and of course English Composition.
4. What are your reading/writing strengths? I believe that my word choice is both strong and accurate.
5. What do you wish to improve? I want to improve my understanding of what a reader wants from what I am writing. Trying to envision what a reader is thinking has always been a difficulty.
6. Major or Career goals? My major goal is an Associates of Science in Computer Science.
7. Is there anything academically that I need to know about you for your success in this class? (Learning style/differences)? I am currently dealing with a stressful homelife, as well as going through the ADA process.
8. Do you have any outside obligations? (Family, Work, etc.) I do have obligations to my family and I may have obligations to work, if all goes as planned with the "Work-study" program.

Student Consent Form

Students,

For the semester, we will be discussing, reading, and viewing serious content that requires maturity. The purpose in using this material in the college level course is to expose and analyze the social, political, and or environmental issues that we now face in modern society or we have faced historically. My intent is to have meaningful discussions and written analysis and synthesis of these articles, short stories, and films as they relate to the Student Learning Outcomes of this course.

If you feel that you are able to discuss, read, and view the content that will be used this semester as an adult, please sign below. If you at any time feel that you are uncomfortable with the themes presented in any given assignment, please notify the instructor and an alternative assignment will be given to you.

By signing this consent form I certify that I, Patrick Ignaut, agree to (Print full name here) the terms of this agreement.
